BACKING THE COMMUNITY IN ASHENGROUND WARD

■ We all benefit from a strong society where people work together to help others. That's why local campaigners Sujan Wickremaratchi and Cllr Jim Knight have worked tirelessly to create and support community groups.

Sujan and Jim have helped two local community groups establish themselves and successfully seek grants. The Sussex Autism Group will help parents are carers of people with autism and the Give Us A Break group will support carers of people who have difficulty looking after themselves.

Cllr Jim Knight says: "Carers are some of the unsung heroes in our community. They do such an important job with little recognition and virtually no respite. Having attended a group meeting myself, I've seen their value first hand and would encourage all carers to get involved".

As well as supporting these groups, Sujan and Jim have helped many residents with individual issues and concerns.

Sporting charities are also high on their list of priorities. Cllr Jim Knight is chairman of the Greater Haywards Heath Bike Ride which raises thousands for local charities - this year to buy defibrillators to be placed around the town.

He has also helped to establish an Olympic legacy charity event 'The 3 Towns Marathon' which was a huge success earlier in the year and saw hundreds of runners take part.

KATY BOURNE'S PRIORITIES AS SUSSEX'S FIRST POLICE & CRIME COMMISSIONER

On 15th November, Sussex residents will have the chance to vote for a Police & Crime Commissioner, whose job it will be to hold the police to account and ensure that the police focus on the public's priorities.

Mid Sussex resident Katy Bourne is the Conservative candidate. She says: "Every citizen has a right to feel safe on the street and in their home and my vision is to ensure that we are all 'Safer in Sussex'. Under my leadership, Sussex Police will cut crime, provide visible neighbourhood policing and deliver value for money for taxpayers".

- > Cutting crime and catching more criminals
- > Visible and effective neighbourhood policing
- > Putting the victim at the heart of the justice system
- > Tackling anti-social behaviour & domestic violence
- > Delivering value for money from our police force
